

Denmark s annual production of optical cables

Overview

The sold production of fibre optic cables in Denmark has exhibited some volatility over the past decade, starting from 43. Key historical trends include significant growth in 2015 and 2016, followed by intermittent declines. The Danish market for insulated wire and optical fibre cables expanded considerably between 2018 and 2023, with its value rising from 386 million US dollars to 766 million US dollars. Although Europe's fibre-optic cable manufacturing industry is fairly small on a global scale, it's becoming increasingly important for the continent's digital transformation. Demand for high-speed internet in Europe is on the rise due to the increase in data-intensive services, like streaming.
